That day
That day
She spoke her last words in my arms
Yapa
For get

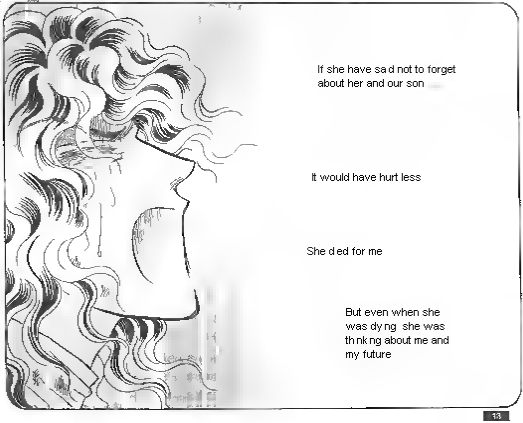
Forg s

Haisha -
Haisha !!



If she have sa d not to forget about her and our son
It would have hurt less
She d ed for me
But even when she was dy ng she was th nk ng about me and my future

I cannot forget her words while I am alive and perhaps after I am dead.

I cannot forget her last words when I am awake and even sleeping.

Her last image

Her last words

The lingering moments

Since then I could not turn to face women with my heart...
Not even you -

That day

I've tried and wanted to forget thousands of times...

It was a sunny and warm day....

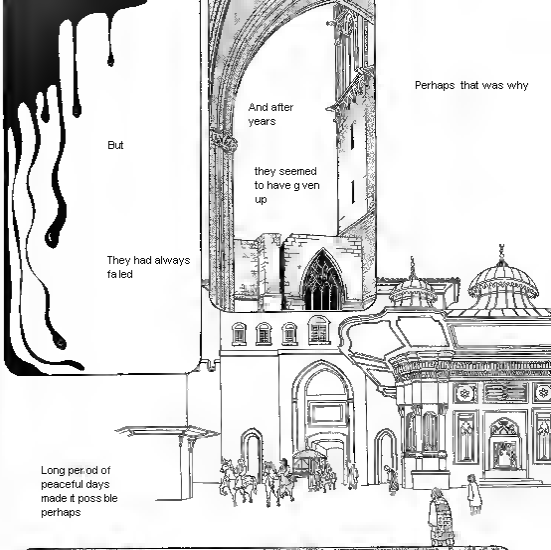
That day...,

They decided to assassinate my brother

Even though they had a daughter of theirs into the royal family,

They wanted to get closer to the king's family, not the queen's family.

So, they were always prepared to kill my brother when they leave the castle...



But
They had always fa led
And after years they seemed to have g ven up
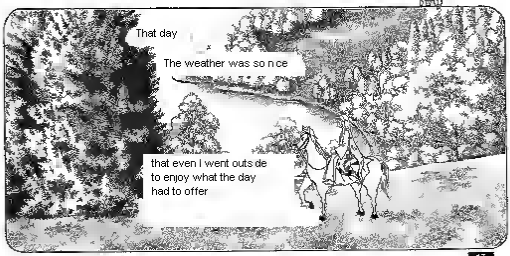
Perhaps that was why
Long per od of peaceful days made it poss ble perhaps



That day
The weather was so n ce that even I went outs de to enjoy what the day had to offer

Move move !
Prince Yapa has left the castle.
He's heading to the tomb of lady Sohpia.

There was no info that he'd be outside today.
It was an unexpected event. He didn't even bring many guards. Good for us, it is. It was worth the wait.
Quickly gather men now.
We w ll ambush h m when he s on h s way back

Contact the team at the east gate also Gather as many men as poss ble
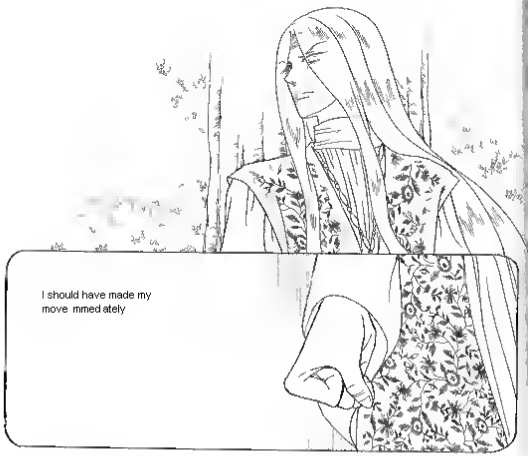
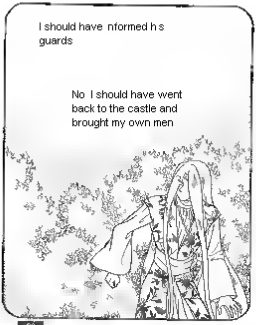
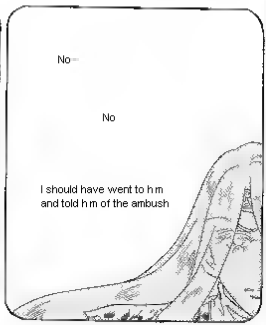
We w ll end h m once for all today



I should have made my move immediately



I should have informed his guards
No I should have went back to the castle and brought my own men



No—
No
I should have went to him and told him of the ambush

But ...
Do not forget that we will use lady Hasha as a bait. She must survive
We can't even hurt her. got it ?
I ....
I ....
I ....

Sun went down

And until it became noon again,
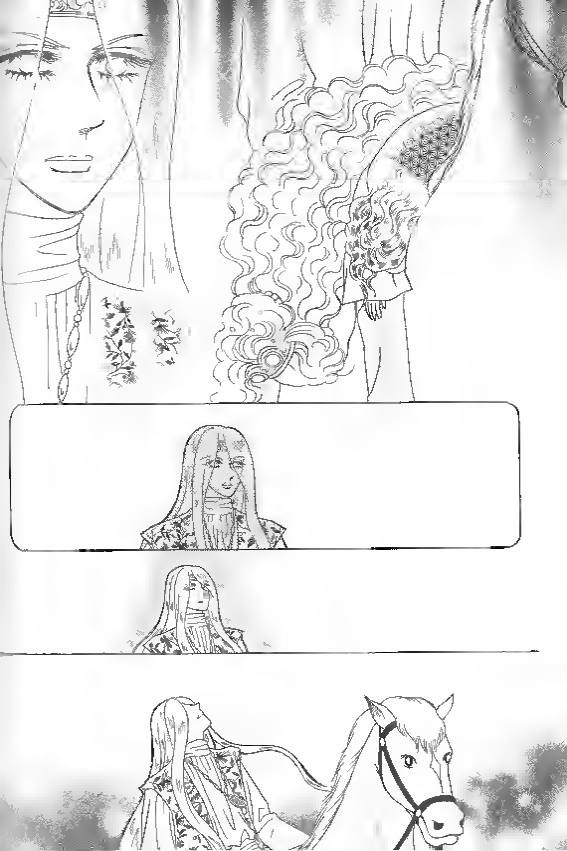
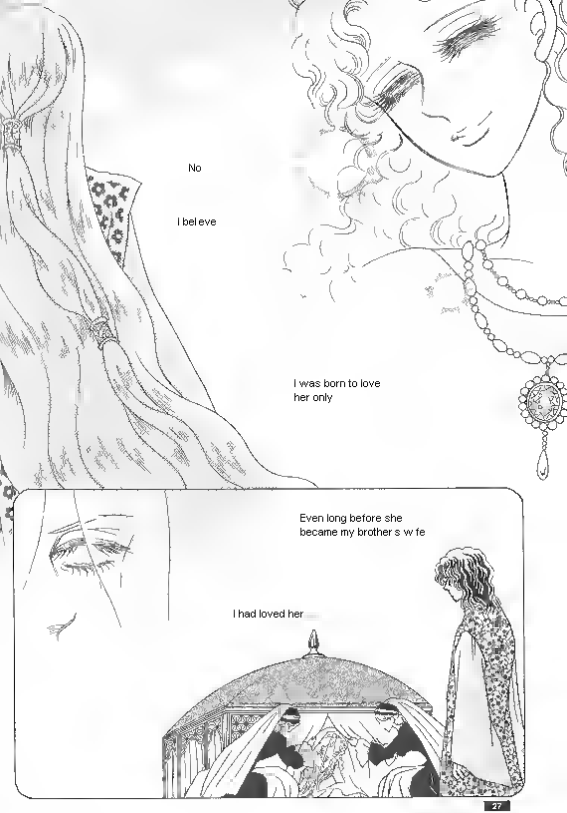
I was still there

And



When I was sixteen ...
I saw her who was twenty ...
And then my fever began
I saw her before my brother d d
And I fell n love with her before my brother d d



No
I bel eve
I was born to love her only Even long before she became my brother s w fe
I had loved her ...

It was me who let her go like that...

She was only 28 ... She was in prime days of her life ...
And ... I let her go like that

Shira
You will have to lead my men to Lota
They need reinforcment now I will send a messenger to father and the princess?
I will make her survive somehow

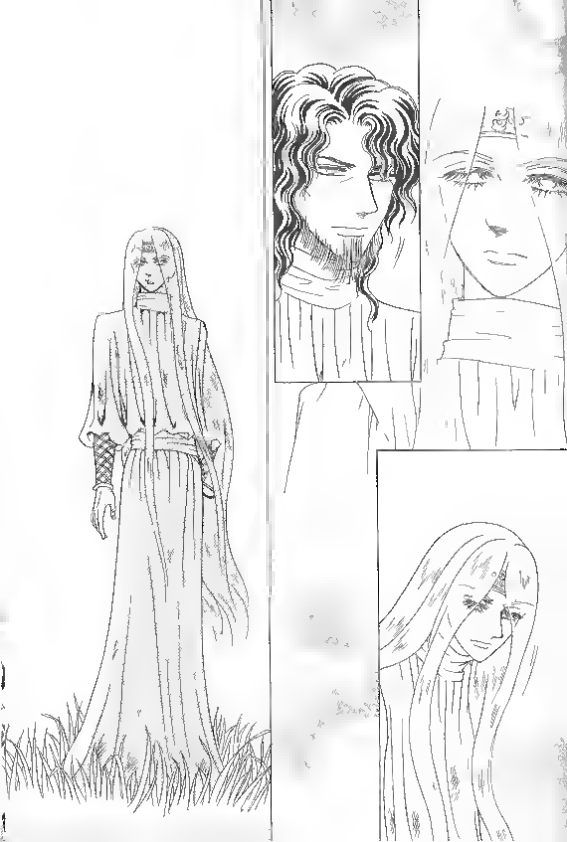
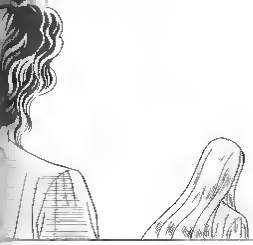
With Anator a h d ng ther claw Father w ll understand the stuat on Gather my men and leave as soon as poss ble
You w ll not have many men left once I leave What if they attack after I leave?
I've contacted my men and they are on their way.
.....
I see.
Thank you
Shira!
For comng all th s way just to nform me that she m ght be n danger



If I did the same that time



I wouldn't have to live with such regrets now

I repeat to myself

Live on

Live on

And I bear myself barely from certain death

I could have simply hoped for my next life and simply end this merciful life

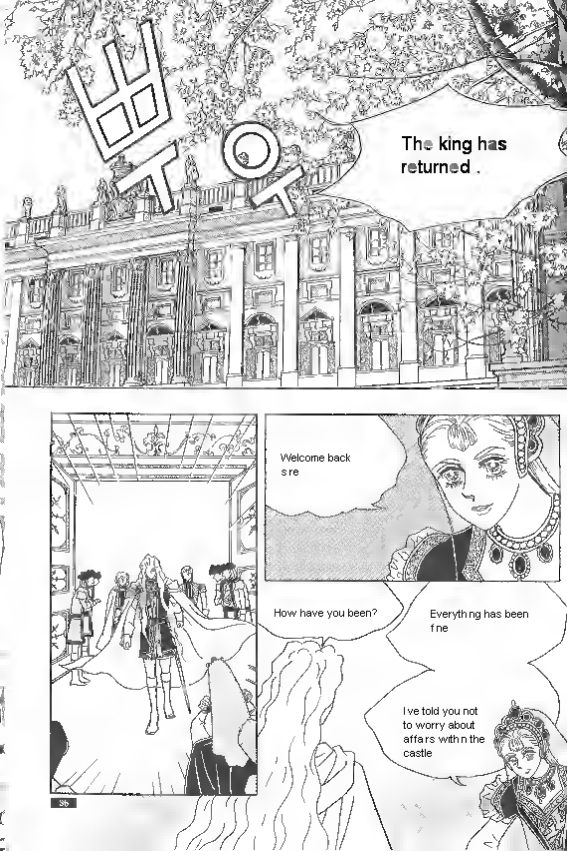
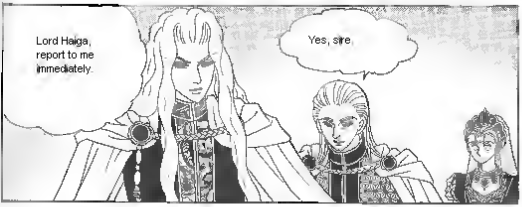
But now
Even if I end this life,
I cannot meet her

And I cannot even dare to wa I for her



The king has returned .
Welcome back sre
How have you been?
Everyth ng has been f ne
I've told you not to worry about affa rs with n the castle

Terika is also here to greet you, sire.
I've urgent matters to attend to. Let's do greetings later



Lord Haiga, report to me immediately.
Yes, sire.

Jan meS.

Mother,
I've returned.
Good work
Bro
Bro...
Hith has returned
But he has been ja led

They abandoned
ther r weapons ?
For now
I ve mpr soned them n one place
Weapons are l fe of mercenar es
ABandon ng ther r weapons equals to abandon ng ther r l fe Execute whoever gave out the order to abandon weapons
But s re
th s s not the f rst t me th s has happened
That has been why
Even though we may have Ramra s shp... we st ll do not have any sk lled sa lors no country was able to catch up to Ramra

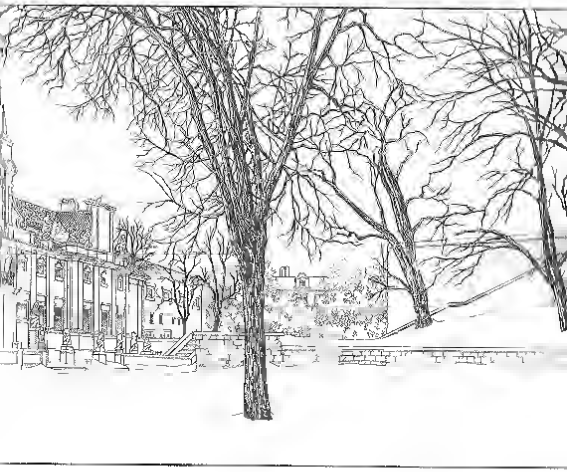
I hoped that it'd get better with their superior ship design
It has indeed gotten much better compared to the past. But, in rough situation, good ships without good sailors mean nothing, sire.
Furthermore, when a ship is carrying that much weapons, no matter how good a ship is they can't survive
We bring in sailors of Ramra
That won't work
I've tried. They simply won't cooperate
They play fool
Then we take a hostage from them

We see Ramira now.



프린세스 Princess

Welcome back

My country

At last,
I've returned
again.

The former lords were either executed or escaped from the country.
New lords have gathered up in the southern area and are prepared for war.
They are waiting for you and your order, sire
Please meet them
Of course

I thought brother was coming with reinfrocement. But you came ?
Originally, I was supposed to come.
Did something happen to him ?
He told me to bring the reinforcement for him

S..noth ng happened and he s mply told you to do th s ?
Brother, do you d slke my presence ?
Of course not
You are one of few Id actually welcome
No..s r
I've done my job So, I shall leave Anyway.. good work
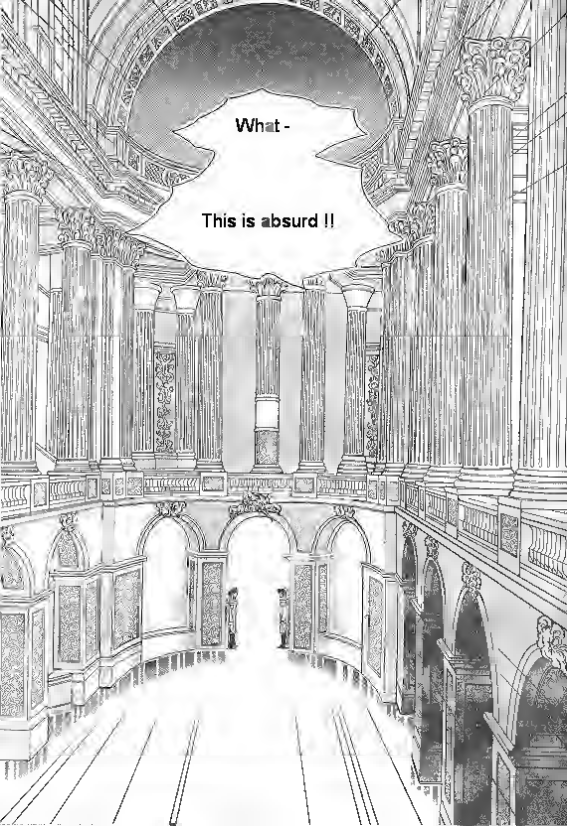
Have some rest We w ll talk later



What -
This is absurd !!

Tor,
that bastard !
How dare he !
And what ?
Send f ve sons from the h ghest rank ng noble fam l es to Anator a for overseas study ?
Your h ghness
You must summon the lords and d scuss th s

Say what ?!
He wants us to send my son to Anatoria ?!
What does that mean ?!
His reasoning is that it's for his education
So he basically wants my son as a hostage !
And we are talking about a mere baby here!
He is going to be the king of Ramira !
Has that Tor gone crazy ?!

Haha -
So, you people thought Tor was sane until now?
He killed his own king to take over his throne
He invaded and colonized a country for some stupid reason a woman
He has done deeds that only a madman could have done
Now I guess he has become blinded enough not to be able to see Skador Seeing how he is dragging himself to extreme
I wonder what so called our king is going to do

Th s s Kel Dale who led our forces when we l berated Doya reg on from Barder
Th s s Danes Nomen from the Nomen fam ly
Th s s Jerem ah Hume of the Hume fam ly

Ah
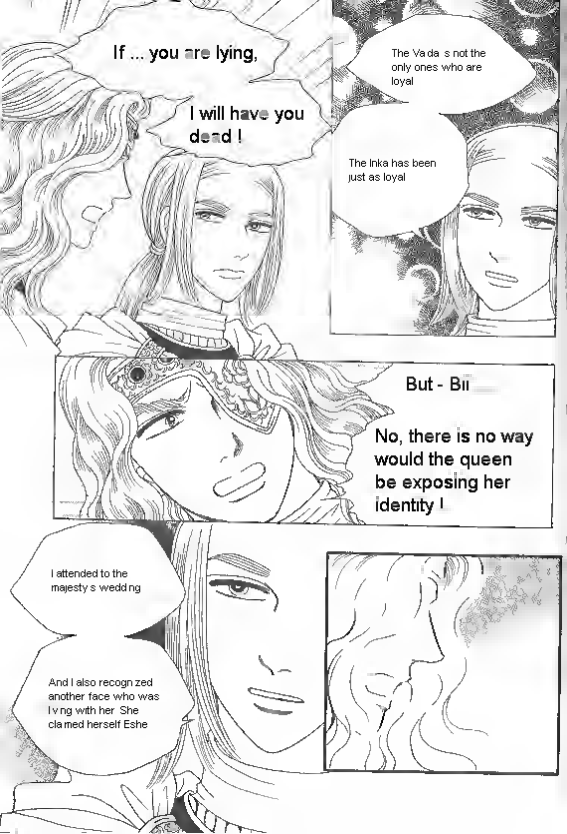
Bii
My Bii I



If ... you are lying,
I will have you dead !
The Vadas not the only ones who are loyal
The Inka has been just as loyal But - But
No, there is no way would the queen be exposing her identity !
I attended to the majesty s wedding
And I also recognized another face who was living with her She claimed herself Eshe

.... This sea goes to Korshika as well.
I am sure it goes to where Bii is.
The sea will gladly lead you to her
Are you
Alright though ?

He sa d that lady Barder s n Ram ra
I am alright
I am alr ght
Even f we stand on the same continent
How could we ever meet ?
We are not even allowed to call out each other s name

As soon as night is over, I will prepare a ship
We should move before Barder gets a clue
We were going to head over to Korshika for mercenaries.
And we have few days open since the meeting and arrangement were finished sooner than expected.
What I am worried is that The Inka might be lying Anyone could make up Bi s story
But they can't lie about Se

Even if what he said s truth
They could have set up a trap
Then I will give you one day and half
You go and see for yourself
I cannot leave you unprotected
I will be on my ship the whole time Go and Shaly are there
I'd like to hear from you not from anyone else
I want to go But the current situation s not too good for me to move

And how s she ?
And th s t me they went for the lady s camp
The pr nce was guard ng the camp whole n ght
So she was unharmed But she st ll rema ns to be unconsc ous
You should return to the castle now
I cannot move now
Not when she s unconsc ous It w ll be too r sky

I believe you should get some sleep
You were fighting for too long
Thankfully, prince Shira is here
I thought you'd come back later since you too, rushed to bring reinforcement for Muzo
I thought that I was needed here
General Baran and I will be here
You must get some rest They might be targeting someone else as well Shira will stay inside. And Baran will guard outside.
Stay on alert all the time.
If anything unusual is found, act. Even if it is very small.

Wow !
Of course
But this is very heavy
I can bring this to home ?
Don't worry
Immense strength
If these were books she's never lift
You are being too easy on her
It's alright
Did you really bought things for Pry only ?
What about mine ?
Ah~ Sorry
Kids are to be loved at that age

I was only joking
Huk mother and daughter are too strong
I was joking also Here is a case of hand cream. It should help you with your eczema
If it's not effective, I am gonna kill the vendor
And...
Your hair seems to have lost its shine So You didn't have to do that Oh you are moved I guess I should bring you more
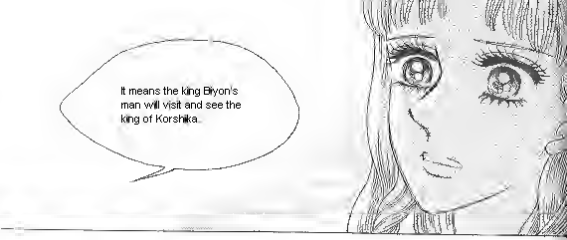
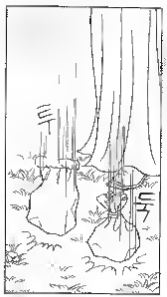
No it's really okay

I am going to the capital early next morning.
I said, I am okay !
Lady Barder... told me something before she left.
She told me what the sign was when the king of Korshika needs her.
One of the s gns appeared
A blue flag
It has been ra sed in every market

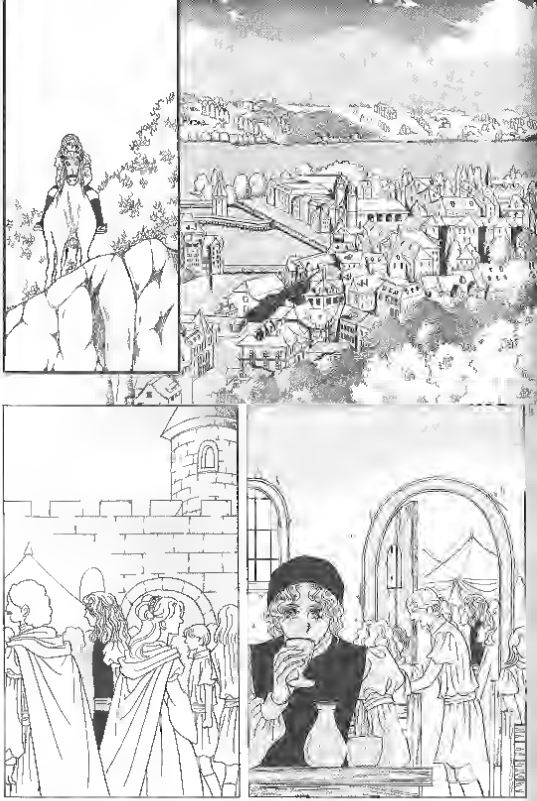


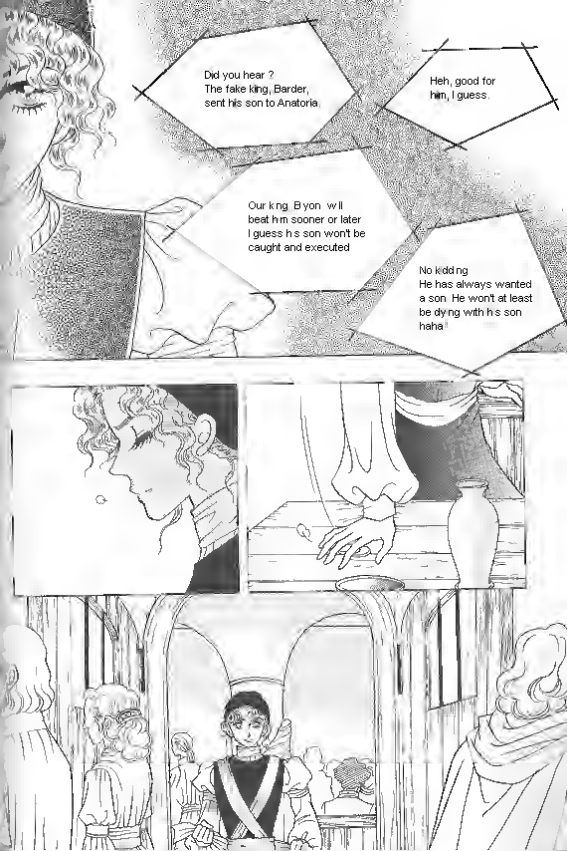
It means the king Bryon's man will visit and see the king of Korshika.

It may be hard to meet him since the king of Korshika does not trust me but



Bii -





Did you hear ?
The fake king, Barder, sent his son to Anatoria.
Heh, good for him, I guess.
Our king, Byon will beat him sooner or later I guess his son won't be caught and executed
No kidding
He has always wanted a son. He won't at least be dying with his son
haha !

I've been searching you

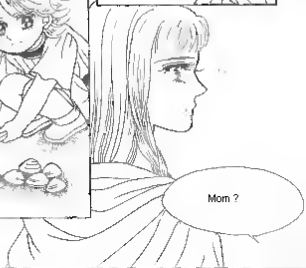
Mom ....



Mom ?

Pry ....
If you go far in the direction I am facing
There will be a place where we must return one day I've told you before, have you not ?
What place ?
A place where it s full of flowers
A place where r vers are so l vely

Animes

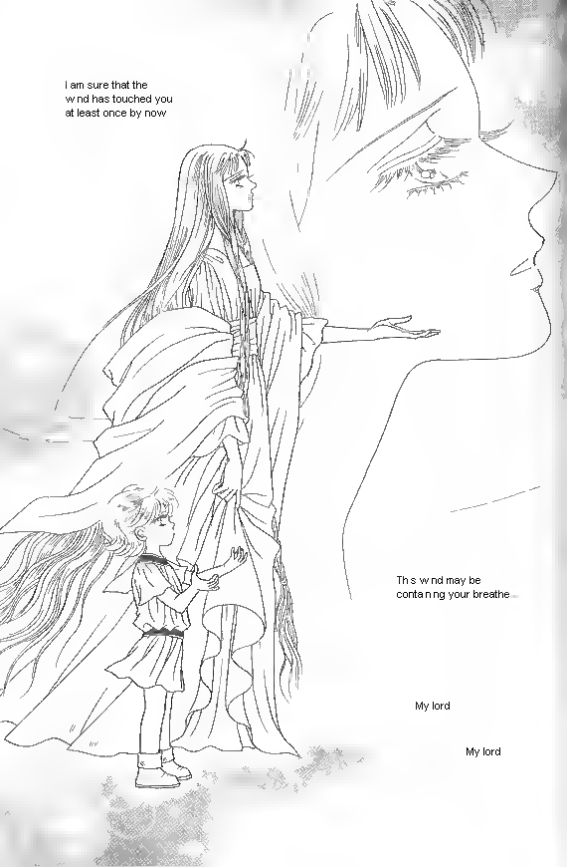
A place where
It never gets too cold or too warm.
Mom's dreamy home ?
Ah, I think wind is blowing from there.
Wind is coming from your home.



I am sure that the

Th s w nd may be

My lord

.... Yes, we will devide our force into two.
This will be the first time that we are actually visiting Korshika. Shally will take lead.
And Gio will take lead when returning.
Can you handle it ?
No problem
He`s probably better than me now ..

This is a list of what-to-do while I am on the mission
I understand
It will explain everything in detail
Shelly, this is the spot that the Inka has told me.
You will be sailing into unknown sea.. Will you be fine ?
I will make sure I understand flow of sea with additional materials.
We will depart by tomorrow noon
I will finish preparation by today

Watch your mouth
Why do you think I've been serving him?
Do you fail to realize what kind of a man he is?
There is only one for him
Everyone gives up with time being
And he is a man, too Better give up then
I forbid you to even approach the king once we return
I will find a good man and marry you Let's just leave it at that
That is not going to happen, father

I can't believe you made it !
I, I mean I thought you were going to lose.
argh, this cursed tongue.
I mean I am glad
Thank you
Well the prince has been so devoted to save you So it s no wonder
He went out for herbs every s ngle day and personally made ant dote and feed you and stood guard every n ght by h mself Wh le you were unconsc ous he never slept comfortably

Something warm touched

And warm voices

And warm tears that came down to

I thought I was just because such'd never

I heard you were looking for me.
I heard that you were on guard tonight. So, even though it is late, I called you.
So do you need someth ng ?
I heard pr nce Yapa s unable to move back to the castle because of me and th s area s very dangerous
Sorry general Curse my l ght mouth
Is it true ?

You have to become strong enough for travel
Even so that should be no excuse for holding him down in such danger Prepare to head back to the castle

And they will often challenge their fate as well
